Rarely do significant view properties become available, especially when combined with a single level living area and gracious floor plan. This unique offering boasts views of six Bay Area counties. The 180 degree views of the Bay and San Francisco from the living room, dining room, master bedroom and adjoining deck highlight this wonderful home in the hills of San Carlos. The sweeping views continue in the kitchen, breakfast area and second deck with vistas of the Bay and Silicon Valley. From sunrise through twilight hours the ever changing views provide inspiration and serenity. This three bedroom two and a half bathroom home is graced with recently refinished hardwood floors in all major rooms. The formal living room and family room share a dual sided fireplace and access to the rear deck. The spacious formal dining room is conveniently located adjacent to the kitchen and breakfast area which encourages entertaining. Freshly painted interior and attractive lighting.
